

Read a book you haven't read before. Here are some ideas: https://www.carnegiegreenaway.org.uk Create something based on the book – it could be a review or something more creative!	Keep a record of any exercise you do over the summer holidays. Record what you do and for how long. Can you present your information as a table, a graph, a pie chart or any other interesting way?
Plan and go on a family day out. It could be somewhere unusual you travel to, a day at the local park or a bike ride around the Letchworth Greenway. Can you show what you did on that day? You might write a diary entry or take some photographs.	Can you plan and create something and bring it in or photograph it? You could: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Cook something</li> <li>• Knit or sew something</li> <li>• Build something</li> <li>• Create a model out of Lego</li> <li>• A piece of art</li> </ul>
Can you manage at least 24 hours without a screen? No phone, tablet, computer, Television etc....  What did you do instead?	Can you find out about Ebenezer Howard and the founding of Letchworth Garden City?  What were the Community Values?  Show what you have found by making a fact file.
If you could travel anywhere in the world this Summer holiday, where would you go and what would you do? Write an imaginary diary entry for a day from the 'Best Summer Holiday Ever!'	Visit a free museum or art gallery – this can be an online visit! North Hertfordshire Museum Science Museum Natural History Museum Imperial War Museum British Museum Tate Art Galleries National Portrait Gallery  What was your favourite thing there? Can you show what you learnt about it?

